

WHAT TO WATCH FOR IN 2016:
"We will see darker bathrooms and more tiles with patterns. Luxury today is all about natural products."

Marie Olsson Nylander

Instagram: 19,400 followers
Base: Höganäs, Sweden
Occupation: Stylist
@marieolssonnylander

Most popular Instagram post:
"It was a photo taken by my friend Sara of my kitchen (above, right). It's not perfect at all. It's a sunny morning, there's a lot of texture and it feels warm. Pictures taken from my home (above, left) often get a lot of 'likes'. Anything bright and light."

CLOCKWISE FROM ABOVE RIGHT: 'GT1' handmade cement tile by Glen Baghurst, $219 per square metre, from Marrakech Design; marrakechdesign.se. Par Taps Lugano' brass spout, $275, 'Bella' concrete taps, $440, and 'Maddie' concrete vanity basin, $495, all from Wood Melbourne; woodmelbourne.com. 'Rockpool' soap, $8 each, from Vice & Velvet; viceandvelvet.com.au. 'Tutto' linen hand towel, $32 each, from Hale Mercantile Co; halemercantileco.com.

Aesthetic: "A mix between centuries, from 1700 to 1970... it's all about feelings."

Most inspirational bathroom:

"I WILL SOON BUILD MY DREAM BATHROOM AT HOME. FOR ME, THE SMALL THINGS IN LIFE ARE A LUXURY, SUCH AS HANDMADE TILES FROM MOROCCO, FRENCH LINEN TOWELS AND HAND-CARVED, NATURAL OLIVE SOAP."