

A little bit dramatic
A rich purple palette – with a hint of greenery – is perfect for a cosy winter gathering. Flip the page for three recipes that prove sharing is caring. →

EAT

SAVOUR / SHARE

Dip tease

A communal way of eating is making a culinary comeback. Set the scene with some soft candlelight and settle in for an enjoyable evening with good friends. Tablecloth and napkins from Hale Mercantile Co, table runner and dinner plates from West Elm, pasta bowls, wine glasses and tumblers from Williams Sonoma, large porcelain bowl from Mud Australia, Resin vase from Dinosaur Designs, and chairs from James Lane. →

LET'S GET TOGETHER

KEEP IT SIMPLE WITH THESE LUSCIOUS ONE-POT DISHES PERFECT FOR A WINTER KNEES-UP

prawns with punch heartly, colourful paella is an expressive way to enjoy seafood during the cooler months, when serving a prawn on the barbecued isn't an option. Fair with rose and let the party begin. blecloth and linen napkins om Colliver, table runner from ate Mercantile Co, plates and cups from Mud Australia, cutlery om Pottery Barn, paella pan m Williams Sonoma, resin oon from Dinosaur Designs, glasses from Riedel, serving after from Royal Doulton. →

EAT